Data stores

The Unizin Data Platform offers institutions a variety of data stores.

Data lake

A key function of the Unizin Data Platform’s context and data ingestion pipelines is to maintain a data lake that can serve a variety of ad hoc research, BI, reporting, and analytics use cases. The UDP uses standard data stores to enable institutional access to their data.

1. UDP Context store
2. UDP Event store